By Your Side

V1:

We're all traveling down this lonely road
We're all tumbling in the tides
But I am here, to simply let you know
I'll be right by your side

We all hear that voice inside our souls
A wind that whispers in the night
Whatever lies down this old winding road
I'll be right by your side

CHORUS:

Oh oh oh oh
Don't have to face this world alone
Oh oh oh
I'll be the place that you call home
Oh oh oh
As pages turn and years go by
I'll be right by your side

V2:

A hundred books can't tell you what to do
A thousand songs that still don't rhyme
Be yourself and keep your heart true
I'll be right by your side

CHORUS

BRIDGE:

It doesn't matter where we choose to plant our roots
We'll always blossom in each other's light
And from the shelter of your open arms
You look into my eyes and say
