If It Don't Twang

Have you ever heard raindrops wailin' on an old tin roof
Or Haggard and Cash pourin' out the simple truth
Do you think that a little bit of fiddle is never enough
Then buddy, you know exactly where I'm comin' from

If it don't twang, it aint my thang
If it don't Hank, like the midnight train
Or cry like a steel
Bendin my ole heartstrings
If it don't twang, it aint my thang
If it don't swang, then I cant hang
Its gotta have soul or I don't give a dang
If it don't twang, it aint my thang

When I hear some backporch pickin' on an old banjo
It makes me hungry for some country on my radio
And I've never heard a sweeter song in this whole wide world
Then a "hey ya'll" rolling off the lips of a southern girl
